Family Leisure as a Context for AAC Intervention: An Interdisciplinary Case Study Presenters: Tara O'Neill, Ashley McCoy, Christine Holyfield, Susannah Boyle, Jiali Liang, Kelsey Mandak, Krista Wilkinson

Outline:

I. What is family leisure?
   a. Types
      i. Core
      ii. Balance
   b. Benefits
      i. Cohesion
      ii. Adaptability
      iii. Satisfaction
      iv. Child socialization
      v. Family communication
   c. Families with a child with a disability
      i. Patterns of leisure
      ii. Benefits
      iii. Constraints

II. Introduction of case
    a. Background
    b. Developmental History
    c. Cognition
    d. Behavioral History

III. Leisure as a supportive context for AAC intervention
    a. Capture core leisure
    b. Example: farm

IV. Literacy as leisure
    a. Literacy as family leisure
    b. Low-tech options
    c. Single-message buttons
    d. High-tech options
    e. Potential benefits

V. ABA application
    a. Visual schedules
    b. Assessing behavior
    c. Evaluating preferences
    d. Additional thoughts

VI. References

Notes: